

SUBMARINES SINK TWO SHIPS OFF BEACHY HEAD

BRITISH AVIATORS ATTACK GERMAN DIVERS AT HOBOKEN AND ZEEBRUGGE

French Steamer Emma is Sent to the Bottom with Nineteen of Crew—Eleven Drown When Seven Seas is Sunk—Austrians Bombard Belgrade.

London, April 1.—(10:25 p. m.)—While the German submarines continue their activity around the coasts of Great Britain, the naval wing of the royal flying squadron keeps up its attacks in German submarines which are being built at Hoboken and on the submarine base at Zeebrugge. The Germans have added two more steamers to the long list of merchantmen sunk off Beachy Head. The victims this time were the French Steamer Emma, which was torpedoed yesterday without notice, 19 of her crew going down with her ship, and the British Steamer Seven Seas sent to the bottom this afternoon without warning, eleven of her crew being drowned.

Lose Five Ships in Week.
The British losses already reported for the week ending March 31st were five steamers. A sixth vessel was torpedoed but reached port. During the week however, 1,559 entered and sailed from British ports. So except for the deplorable loss of life the damage done was not considered excessive.

On the other hand the British have no means of ascertaining the nature of the damage done by the bombs dropped at Hoboken and Zeebrugge although it is believed that two of the underwater craft lying at the Mole of Zeebrugge were damaged.

Mine Warfare in Progress.
Beyond these attacks the official reports contain little news today and that which they do give relates only to operations of minor importance. Mine warfare has been in progress at many points in the west and at other points there have been artillery duels and occasional infantry attacks but nothing that has in any way approached the proportions of a battle. In the east the armies stand about as they were.

The fighting in northern Poland has been of a desultory character, both sides apparently having given up any idea of advancing for the present. In central Poland however, the Russians are showing a certain liveliness. The German official reports for the last two days have not attempted to resume the offensive on the Rawa river while Vienna tonight reports a severe attack by the Russians in the vicinity of the Pilica river which they claim to have repulsed.

Making Very Slow Headway.
These movements doubtless have been undertaken to prevent the Austrians and Germans from sending reinforcements from this front to strengthen the armies which are trying to hold the Carpathians Passes against the onslaught of the Russians, who daily report the capture of a large number of prisoners but who apparently are making very slow headway in the operations against Lupkow and Uzesok Passes.

Belgrade has again been bombarded by Austrian guns while Austrian aviators have dropped bombs on Cetinje, the Montenegrin capital. The operations of the allied warships in the Dardanelles are still in a state of abeyance.

BRITISH AEROPLANES ATTACK GERMAN SUBMARINES IN BELGIUM

Bombs Are Dropped at Hoboken and Zeebrugge According to British Statement.

London, April 1.—(8:44 p. m.)—Aeroplane attacks on German submarines at Hoboken and Zeebrugge, Belgium, have been accomplished successfully the British admiralty announced tonight. The following statement was given out:

"The following report has been received from Wing Commander A. M. Longmore, R. N.: 'I have the report that this morning Flight Sub-Lieutenant Frank G. Andrae carried out a successful air attack on the German submarines which are being constructed at Hoboken near Antwerp, dropping four bombs. 'Also Flight Lieutenant John P. Wilson whilst reconnoitering over Zeebrugge observed two submarines lying alongside the Mole and attacked them, dropping four bombs with it, it is believed, successful results. 'These officers started in the moonlight this morning. Both pilots returned safely.'"

CROSS EXAMINE RATE EXPERT.

Chicago, April 1.—U. G. Powell, rate expert of the Nebraska railroad commission, was subjected to a prolonged cross-examination at the inter-state commerce commission hearing of the western freight case today. He appeared in opposition to the forty-one western roads' petition that they be permitted to increase freight rates on certain commodities which the railroads say are necessary to equalize rates and increase their revenues in order to maintain their properties.

ANNOUNCES CATTLE SCOURGE IS PRACTICALLY ERADICATED

Figures Compiled by Department of Agriculture Show That 124,141 Animals Have Been Slaughtered.

Washington, April 1.—Practical eradication of the livestock foot and mouth scourge in the United States was announced tonight by the department of agriculture. Officers in charge of the campaign waged against the disease during the past six months said that with the single exception of a herd of animals near Syracuse, N. Y., which had been designated for slaughter today, telegraphic reports from inspectors throughout the country showed the disease had been, to the best of their knowledge completely wiped out.

Slaughter 124,141 Animals.
Figures compiled by the department show that 124,141 animals have been slaughtered because of foot and mouth infection from the time of the outbreak in October to March 25th last. It was pointed out however, that the total loss caused by the disease could not be estimated alone by the number of animals killed. Interference with the operations of the stock yards at Chicago and other principal shipping points, the quarantining of infected regions in practically all of the cattle raising states and other precautionary measures ordered by the department to prevent the spread of the disease during its worst stages, it was said, had caused indeterminate losses.

The $2,500,000 emergency fund which congress placed at the disposal of the secretary of agriculture to combat contagious diseases officials of the department said was practically depleted in financing the war against the foot and mouth disease.

Government Paid Half.
Preliminary estimates place the actual cost to the federal government of animals killed because of the plague infection at between two and three million dollars. The government paid only fifty per cent of the value of the animals slaughtered in the states. In the majority of cases reimbursing the owners with an equal amount. The total value of animals killed by both the state and the federal authorities therefore would be between five and six million dollars.

REQUEST INDEMNITY FOR FULL VALUE OF AMERICAN SHIP FRYE

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Indemnity for the full value of the American ship William P. Frye, destroyed at sea by the German converted cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich has been formally requested by the United States government. Acting Secretary Lansing announced today that a note on the subject had been sent to Ambassador Gerard for presentation at the foreign office in Berlin. Pending its receipt in Berlin the document will not be made public but it was described officially today as a recital of the facts and a presentation of a claim for damages on behalf of the owners of the vessel. No representations were made concerning the cargo since it was established after an investigation by the state department that it was sold enroute and was British owned at the time of the sinking.

BRITISH STEAMER SEVEN SEAS IS TORPEDOED; ELEVEN DROWN

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 1.—(10:45 p. m.)—The British Steamer Seven Seas, of 632 tons, was torpedoed by a German submarine off Beachy Head this afternoon. The attack was without warning, and eleven of her crew of eighteen, including all the officers except the second engineer were drowned. The steamer was bound from London for Liverpool.

Such was the force of the explosion that the hatches were blown off and a big hole was torn in the steamer's side, causing her to sink within three minutes. The survivors, three of whom were injured, were landed here this evening by a destroyer.

AUTHORIZE FILING OF CLAIMS OF OVERCHARGES AGAINST WABASH

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—The State of Missouri and individuals were authorized to file claims of overcharges against the Wabash railroad, according to an order filed in the federal district court here today by Circuit Judge Adams. The overcharges in question relate to excess collections while the passenger and freight laws were in litigation. Similar claims have been filed against other roads but they could not be filed against the Wabash without the consent of the court as that line is in the hands of receivers.

HAMBURG-AMERICAN STEAMER ESCAPES FROM CANARY ISLANDS

MADRID, April 1.—via Paris.—Telegrams received here today from Las Palmas, Canary Islands, say that the Hamburg-American Steamer Macedonia has succeeded in making her escape and, evading British cruisers has sailed for South American waters. The Macedonia is laden with supplies believed to be intended for German warships.

The Macedonia interned at Las Palmas on Nov. 13th. She was reported to have skipped out of the harbor on March 18th, but this was denied and subsequently there were conflicting reports about her.

INTRODUCE EFFICIENCY MEASURES IN ASSEMBLY

RECOMMENDATIONS OF COMMISSION ARE INCORPORATED IN BILLS

Womack Bill Would Require Health Certificate with Application for Marriage License—Eight Hour Law is Referred to Sub-Committee.

Springfield, Ill., April 1.—With the introduction today of six additional efficiency measures, all but four of the sixteen bills prepared by the state efficiency and economy commission providing for centralization of state departments are before the legislature.

The efficiency and economy commission named by the last general assembly to investigate means of cutting down expenses recently made a report in which recommendations are made to save the state millions of dollars. These recommendations are incorporated into the bills which have been and will be introduced.

Senator George W. Harris of Cook county introduced a joint resolution in the senate providing for a full legislative investigation of the affairs of Illinois railways which are asking the legislators for an increase from 2 to 2 1/2 cents a mile in passenger fare rates. Many considered the resolution an effort to prepare action on the railroad's request for a passenger fare advance until next session.

Change Personnel of Committee.
On protest from the Democrats, the senate today changed the personnel of the committee named to investigate Governor Dunne's recess appointments so as to include two Democrats and three Republicans. As originally named the committee consisted of four Republicans and one Democrat. The committee as approved consists of Senators Ross, Chairman; Etzelson and Barr, Republicans and Senators Brodick and Hughes, Democrats. Four bills providing for the abolition of capital punishment were made a special order of business in the senate for next Wednesday. Governor Dunne probably will address the senate in favor of an anti-capital punishment law. The senate judiciary committee today recommended that all such bills be defeated.

Among the more important bills not included in the efficiency and economy commission's program which were introduced today were:

A bill by Senator Womack requiring a certificate of good health from both men and women with all applications for marriage licenses. A measure offered by Senator Gorman of Chicago repealing the township local option law.

A bill by Representative Campbell providing for the appointment of county boards of vacancies; county commissioners' state's attorney, sheriff, coroner, county clerk, county recorder, county treasurer, county surveyor, justice of the peace and constable.

A bill by Representative Harry Wilson giving school directors power to establish and maintain kindergarten. A measure by Representative Fahy requiring the recording of ownership of municipal bonds with the state auditor for taxation purposes. Among the efficiency and economy measures so far introduced are bills providing for the consolidation under individual heads of the following state departments: Agricultural finance, education, health, prison management, trade and commerce, law, official reports and public works.

Refer Bills to Sub-Committee.
All the bills before the legislature seeking to reimburse members for railroad fare expended in traveling from their homes to legislative sessions today were referred to a sub-committee by the judiciary committee of the lower house.

Send Eight Hour Bill Back.
Over the protests of Representative Medill McCormick, author of the measure, the house committee on industrial affairs today referred the bill providing for an eight hour day for women to a sub-committee of nine members with instructions to make some recommendation by April 20th. Some friends of the bill construed this action as an attempt to kill the measure. However, Representative Tarabough, chairman of the committee, insisted it will have a fair hearing and that it will not die in committee.

The same committee also referred the Shurtleff child labor bill to a sub-committee of seven members with instructions to report by April 20th. Representative Leach was named chairman of the sub-committee to consider the eight hour bill and Representative Davis was named chairman of the child labor committee.

Further public hearings on the eight hour bill will be held by the sub-committee a week from Friday.

REPORTS WERE EXAGGERATED

Springfield, Ill., April 1.—Governor Dunne was advised tonight by John M. Pico, Italian consular agent in this city, that the reported trouble between rival camps of Italians at Marion, Ill., had been greatly exaggerated. According to Mr. Pico, who today received word from Marion, one Italian had been slain but no further trouble was feared.

War News Summarized

An "important success" over the Germans along the west bank of the Niemen river is reported in the latest official statement issued by the Russian war office which adds: "In the Carpathians, our offensive continues with very substantial results."

Petrograd describes the difficulties which are being encountered by the Russian soldiers—deep snow, precipices and forests fortified with wire entanglements—and declares that notwithstanding these the Austrians have been dislodged from their trenches and the Russians have captured a series of fortified heights in the Beskid mountains.

The Austrian official communication asserts that in the east Beskides several attacks by the Russians were repulsed and that the Russians also had received a check on the Pilica river, in central Poland.

The Russian claims also embrace the defeat of several Austrian battalions, which having crossed the frontier and advanced in the direction of Chotin, where they fortified a position, were surrounded and partly exterminated, 1,500 of the survivors being captured.

The western war zone remains comparatively quiet, artillery duels being the feature of the campaign there. The airmen have been at work, both British and French, with the object both of reconnoitering and doing as much damage as possible to German submarine and aviation bases and stations.

German submarines have destroyed two more steamers, the British Seven Seas and the French Emma, both off Beachy Head. The attacks on these vessels are said by the survivors to have been without warning and many lives were lost.

CRUISER MARYLAND WILL TAKE WRECKING PARTY TO HONOLULU

VALLEJO, Calif., April 1.—The United States Cruiser Maryland, now at the Mare Island navy yard, received orders today to proceed to Honolulu with a wrecking party to aid in the raising of the United States submarine F-4.

The Maryland will take the four gunners' mates ordered here from the New York navy yard yesterday, sent by the navy department as experts to assist in raising the submarine. The cruiser will be equipped with towing apparatus so that if the submarine, when raised, is found seaworthy she can be towed to the yard here.

The date of the Maryland's departure has not been set.

MANY PAY RESPECT TO MEMORY OF DR. J. F. WILLSON

Funeral Services Were Conducted at Tallula With Burial in Greenwood Cemetery—Sketch of His Life.

The funeral services for Dr. J. F. Willson, who passed away Monday, March 25, were held at the family residence in Tallula at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon where there was a large assemblage of relatives and sincere admirers and friends of the deceased. The remains were laid away in the family burial lot in Greenwood cemetery near Tallula.

The passing of Dr. Willson removes the oldest male citizen who was born in Menard county. Geo. W. Willson, father of Dr. Willson, settled on a farm in Menard county in 1826, and the farm is still in possession of his family. Dr. John P. Willson was born on this farm, Jan. 4, 1830 and at the time of his death he had attained the ripe old age of 85 years, 2 months and 21 days. He was one of ten children born to his parents, but two of whom survive the death of their father. Mrs. Mary J. Willson of Jacksonville and Mrs. Elizabeth Curt of Neodesha, Kan. is also survived by his widow and four children, Clara, who is now the wife of Dr. W. E. Shasted of Pittsfield, Howard T. Willson, a banker in Virden and Charles C., and Royal A., both of whom are engaged in banking in Chicago.

For many years Dr. Willson was associated in the banking business with the late W. G. Green of Tallula, the latter being for some years a warm friend and companion of the martyr, Abraham Lincoln, at old Salem in Menard county. Dr. Willson was a member of the 114th regiment Ill. volunteers during the civil war and held the position of surgeon of the regiment. On his return from the war he engaged for some years in the practice of medicine and afterwards was a merchant banker, retiring some years since to the quiet of his farm where he calmly awaited the end. He was universally respected and his passing will bring sorrow to a host of friends and admirers.

Those from this city present at the funeral were his sister, Mrs. Mary J. Willson, his nephew, W. T. Brown and wife and his life long friend, Benjamin R. Upham.

Mrs. A. L. Adams returned yesterday from Springfield where she went to attend the hearings on the child labor bill before a committee of the legislature.

WILSON DENIES GIVING INTERVIEW TO ALPHAUD

STATES HE GAVE NO EXPRESSION OF OPINION ABOUT CURRENT AFFAIRS

Denial Results From Story Cabied to Paris Temps by Alphaud—President States He Sent no Letter Recently to President Poincare.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—President Wilson tonight authorized the statement that he had given no interview and had given no expression of opinion about current affairs to Gabriel Alphaud, who cabled to the Paris Temps what purported to be an interview with the president on European and Mexican affairs.

The statement also was authorized at the white house that President Wilson had sent no letter recently to President Poincare as suggested by M. Alphaud, but that the letter to which reference was made was sent several months ago by Mr. Wilson as a member of the American academy of arts and letters, in reply to one of President Poincare of the French academy, brought to this country in person by Emile Brieux, the French playwright. The letter was made public at the time, white house officials recalled and contained only felicitations of a general character.

Cables Story to Temps.
Paris, April 1.—(5 p. m.)—Gabriel Alphaud, secretary general of the Temps, who was introduced to President Wilson at the white house Wednesday by the French ambassador in Washington, has sent to the Temps an interview which he says he had with the president.

"I am glad to see on American soil," President Wilson is quoted as having said, "Frenchmen who come to satisfy themselves as to the state of opinion in the United States. You will not receive an impression, I am sure, that will give you cause reasonably to complain of that opinion."

"Definite questions are at times considered by France or others of the belligerent countries as proof that the American government favors one and sometimes the others of the combatants."

"The two groups of belligerent nations complain of the attitude of the American government in equally vituperous terms. Each time one of these cases arises is it not proof that the government of the United States is conscientiously observing the rules of neutrality?"

Refers to Letter to Poincare.
"The Germans or the allies may at times find that we are exacting the American government sticks too closely to these rules. The war will not last forever. When it is finished, such or such a nation will perhaps be glad that we have maintained the rules against which she protests today. France will avoid the error of believing that individuals of the peoples in the conflict often think—that is that the one who is not active for them is against them. As to my own sentiments regarding France, I addressed a letter to the president of the French republic that expresses them clearly. Be sure that I do not think anything less than what that letter says."

M. Alphaud says he asked President Wilson if he contemplated increase in the American army and navy had any precise object and that the president replied: "No, the augmentation has retarded rather than hurried by current events. We desire to avoid false interpretations."

ALEXANDER SCHOOL IS WINNER OF RED CROSS SEAL SALE PRIZE

Two Handsome Pictures Hang in Building in Recognition of Work Done by Pupils During Recent Campaign.

On final counting of per capita sales by rural school pupils during the Red Cross Seal campaign of the Christmas season just passed, Alexander was found to lead the rest with twenty stamps sold for each of the pupils enrolled and two handsome prize pictures were yesterday delivered to Principal C. W. Andrews by Miss Annie Hinrichsen, Red Cross chairman for Morgan county. Lawrence Patterson has the record for the most seals sold by one person. Excellent work was done by all the rural schools participating, but especially good were the sales in schools visited by Miss Florence Ward, rural school chairman, Miss Olmsted and Miss Hinrichsen.

In the upper room at the school there hangs a portrait of Washington in an oval frame of oak. The prize picture for the primary room is an impressive representation of the Roman Coliseum, artistically framed.

BROOKLYN M. E. CHURCH REVIVAL GROWS IN INTEREST

There was a large audience present Thursday night at the Brooklyn M. E. church revival. Rev. J. M. Beadles had for a subject, "God's target or missing the mark." His text was Romans 3:23: "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God." He drew a telling lesson from the text and it was a strong appeal for men to live the higher life and forsake the selfish life. Tonight he will preach on the subject, "Crabapples and Believers." Miss Mary Lindsay sang last night, "One moment with Jesus."

SHOOTS WIFE AND SELF.

Springfield, Ill., April 1.—Domestic troubles are said to have caused Howard Clarke, aged 50 years, son of J. B. Clarke, a prominent fruit raiser residing east of this city, to shoot his wife, Mary Clarke, 40 years old, tonight and fire four bullets into his own body. Their chances of recovery are said to be small.

PROPOSES MEXICO CITY BE DECLARED NEUTRAL

U. S. HOPES TO SECURE PERMANENT PROTECTION FOR FOREIGNERS

Villa-Zapata Forces Agree—Efforts to Neutralize Railway Between Capital and Vera Cruz Also Depends on Carranza.

Washington, April 1.—With the hope of securing permanent protection for the 25,000 foreigners in Mexico City the United States government has proposed to the Villa-Zapata forces and to General Carranza that the Mexican capital be declared neutral and outside the field of operations hereafter in Mexico's civil war.

Depends on Carranza's Attitude.
The Villa-Zapata forces have agreed to the proposal and are willing to evacuate the city as soon as a similar agreement is obtained with the Carranza authorities who are being negotiated with. On General Carranza depends also whether or not the effort of the United States to neutralize the railway between Mexico City and Vera Cruz shall succeed as the Villa-Zapata officials have likewise given their assent to this proposal. State department officials decline to discuss the status of the two proposals beyond saying that they still were under consideration. The plan with respect to Mexico City contemplates an arrangement whereby order would be maintained there by a local council made up of prominent residents selected by mutual agreement between the opposing factions.

Encouraged by Prompt Acceptance.
The capital would not then, under the terms of the proposed agreement, be subject to further attacks nor would there be any more changes in government until a central government had been established. Officials and diplomats here who are conversant with the details of the plan are much encouraged by the prompt acceptance given to it by the Villa-Zapata authorities and are now hopeful that General Carranza can be persuaded to do likewise. Duval West, personal representative of the president, who it is understood will confer with General Carranza at Vera Cruz in the next few days on the Mexican situation in general, probably will assist American Consuls Stillman and Canada in their efforts to secure Carranza's approval. Later, it is understood, Mr. West will go to Mexico City to talk with the Brazilian minister concerning the situation.

Would Remove Famine Menace.
Should the capital be declared neutral much of the apprehension for the safety of foreigners would be removed and the famine menace eliminated. Since such a step would lessen the likelihood of complication with foreign powers the plan in the opinion of American officials should appeal to all American factions.

No important engagement between the Villa and Carranza forces was reported to the Washington authorities from any source today, despatches saying that comparative quiet prevailed along the border and that the Mexico City situation was unchanged.

UPRISING IN NICARAGUA IS PUT DOWN BY THE GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, April 1.—An uprising in Nicaragua fomented by General Julian Irias, minister of war under the Zeelaya regime has been put down by the government according to a cable received by the Nicaraguan legation today by President Diaz. The message said a small group of revolutionists entered and looted the towns of Saucedo and Jicalar. When government forces were sent against them they fled and are supposed now to be in Honduras.

General Irias was reported to be in Costa Rica whence he was preparing to sail for Havana. He had been active recently in operating the proposed rights on the canal, between the United States and Nicaragua.

Department Cites Danger to United States if Exports Continue Until New Grain Comes In

Washington, D. C., March 22.—Warning that the present heavy exports to European nations of American wheat and flour cannot be continued without endangering the wheat supplies for food and seeding requirements at home was contained today in the department of agriculture's agricultural bulletin. In the opinion of the department's experts exportation at the same rate during December, January, and February until the coming of the new wheat would encroach upon normal domestic needs.—From Chicago Tribune, March 23, 1915, page 4.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT FIRST WARD PRIMARY

If we may judge by the attendance at the first ward Republican primary last evening there is certainly a great degree of interest in the cause of education in that part of the city. The room selected in the building was simply packed like a sardine box, both ladies and gentlemen being there and all deeply interested in the result.

Simeon Fernandes was chosen chairman, and E. M. Vasconcellos, secretary. John Pires and George Nunes were appointed tellers and William Nunes and Newton Angell, guards.

Nominations for candidates for member of board of education were declared in order. William Nunes nominated Geo. W. Imgrund and John Baptist nominated E. J. Rawlings.

It was decided that the tellers should stand in the doorway and each person vote and pass out of the room, a good many coming too late to get into the apartment as it was simply jammed to suffocation.

Finally the polls were declared closed though after the tellers had begun work a dozen or more appeared, but too late to cast their ballots.

The result of the election showed for Imgrund, 221 and for Rawlings, 16.

Ex-Governor Herbert Hadley of Missouri has just announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for U. S. senate from his state. The ex-governor is very popular in Missouri and his fame is wide enough to class him as one of the national leaders of the Republican party.

According to the expressed opinion of civic league members the ideal condition for a city election is to have candidates announce themselves and then leave the matter of choice up to the people without any effort from any source to influence their judgment. The average candidate wants to "leave it to the people", but feels very competent to advise the people as to their best interests.

Let us be glad that Iris Pearman, heiress, after a two year search for a man has located one that meets her requirements at Santa Marta and is now sailing toward him. According to the story Miss Pearman's wealthy father left his property to her provided she marry a man, bearing a likeness to him and with his general mental qualifications. The heiress in her search has passed judgment on 3500 men who would not "do" but Jose Hermida of Santa Marta is said to meet all of the qualifications. If his mental characteristics are similar to those of Mr. Pearman, now deceased, Jose must be—but never mind, the statement might be libelous.

Health Sunday is soon to be observed in Springfield where already fifteen pulpits have been promised to physicians who will make health addresses. The idea has been fostered by the State Medical society and Springfield is only one of a number of cities where the plan will be followed out. Its a good plan too for health is closely related to right living. Not every righteous man and woman is sound and healthy but improved health conditions tend toward better morals always. If the world can be taught the care of the body to such an extent that with passing years perfect health is the rule, then he preachers and evangelists will have easier tasks.

Nortonville and Franklin Win.

In another part of this paper announcement is made of the result of the boys' corn club contest in 1914. Again the boys in the south part of the county, residents of Franklin and Nortonville precincts, are the winners. The same was true last year and the fact is certainly a strong testimonial of the enterprise of the boys in that locality. Some of the lands in the vicinity mentioned are not reputed to be of as high fertility as other parts of the county and the fact that the boys have made such a splendid showing is certainly creditable to them. Another strange thing about the contest is that there were only 18 entries whereas the large prizes and the cause itself should have interested at least 100 Morgan county farmer boys. In other localities the boys' corn clubs have done a great deal to increase interest in proper farming methods, and certainly the organization can accomplish an equal good in this locality if the boys themselves would only awaken to their best interests.

A Suggestive Query.

In the civic league meeting a question propounded by a certain colored lady present came like a bomb. The women were discussing the manner in which they should expose candidates who try to influence voters by making promises, offering cigars or other favors, when the questioner said: "Why do you not make it very clear to us this afternoon just how we shall proceed when efforts at petty bribery are made? We colored women belong to the class just mentioned, that class will be first approached by candidates with offers of payment for service on election day. You know that there are no colored men who are candidates for office at this time, so that all the offers which will come to us will be from the husbands, or brothers or sons of women here today, or like you who are here. We feel friendly in this matter, but have a sense of duty about it, and yet want to proceed in the way that will cause the least embarrassment to our white sisters whose relatives are sure to be the ones to make illegal offers if illegal offers are made."

CIVIC LEAGUE MAKES PLEA FOR PURE ELECTION METHODS

Law Against Petty Bribery and Paid Worker Methods is Emphasized—Pledge to Expose Candidates Violating Law Causes Sharp Debate—Colored Woman's Pointed Question Stirs.

The Civic League meeting at the public library Thursday afternoon was largely a discussion of ideals in municipal government. The majority of those who spoke expressed the belief that the people of Jacksonville are not realizing anywhere near all that they could from the commission form of government. The ladies pointed out that the commission form theoretically fixed the responsibilities more plainly upon officials and gave the opportunity for greater and better things by comparison with old forms of municipal control. They emphasized the thought that when the people voted to change the form of government that they anticipated a great deal of progress would be made under the new form and that all the ideals had not been attained, largely from the fact that the people had not taken the interest that they should properly have done.

Mrs. David Reid presided at the session and Mrs. James Watt was the secretary. Dr. J. R. Harker was present to make a brief address particularly along the line of the resolutions which were introduced at a previous meeting of the league and which were laid over for action until the meeting yesterday. These resolutions purpose to show that the desire of the Civic League is for a clean, honest and progressive city government, and that it is the wish of the league members that every provision of the commission form act shall be observed, especially as related to elections.

Bribery Provisions.

Dr. Harker analyzed to some extent the commission form act, pointing out the duties which are to be performed by the heads of the several departments, and in talking about the proposed resolutions said that it really seemed to him that the resolutions embodied nothing but the provisions of the law and that therefore there was not much debatable matter in them. Dr. Harker laid particular stress upon those sections of the commission form law which made it a misdemeanor for a candidate to make a promise or pledge or a gift or a treat with the purpose of influencing voters and which also make it unlawful for a candidate to employ paid workers on election day or at any time previous. The speaker expressed the hope that in the coming election that the citizens of Jacksonville in their consideration of candidate may forget all about questions of politics, or of church or locality, and think only of the qualifications and the faithfulness of the candidates. He said that the good of the public service was the one question and that voters in selecting candidates should proceed just as they would if they were selecting employees to handle a business for them. Dr. Harker then read extracts from the law.

Old Practices Tabooed.

Mrs. Reid said that she believes that one reason for law infringement with reference to elections could be found in the fact that a great many voters, both men and women, are not wholly familiar with the laws. She said that the purpose in presenting the resolutions had been to make clear the position of league members with reference to election abuses which have grown up under old systems. She said that it was highly important that women in assuming the rights of suffrage should have firmly impressed upon their minds that old practices of employing workers and using petty bribery methods to influence voters were wholly out of place under present conditions, and that these methods were disbarred by the commission form law.

One clause in the resolution stated that members of the league believed it right to "expose and condemn such and kindred forms of bribery when they come to our knowledge" and this clause called forth a great deal of discussion. After Dr. Dewey, with a second by Mrs. U. G. Woodman, had made a motion that the resolution be adopted, Mrs. A. L. Adams called in question the exact meaning of this clause. She pointed out that the resolution should possibly be more specific and should outline the course of action which a league member should take if convinced that some candidate or other person was using illegal means to secure the aid of voters. She thought that possibly the matter should be reported to the executive committee of the league, or at any rate, that the resolution should be in such form that the members did not bind themselves to perform some duty which they would likely not do.

A Colored Woman's Query.

Something of a sensation was caused at this point by Mrs. Lafayette who was present, suggesting that this was the most important matter in the resolution and that she would like to have definite information as to what course she should follow if she knew of bribery methods. The speaker went on to say that the colored women would be the first ones approached in this way, and that it would be the sons and brothers and husbands of the white women who would make the illegal propositions, and that it would be well to tell them just how they should proceed in order to cause as little embarrassment as possible to the wives and mothers and sisters of the candidates. There was considerable further discussion along this same line of a somewhat animated character, and then the resolution was adopted.

The League's Declaration.

The resolution is in the following language: We, friends of good government and women of the Civic League, desire for Jacksonville a clean, honest and progressive city government. As a means to that end we hereby declare our intention of selecting our candidates for the coming election solely "with reference to their qualifications and fitness and for the good of the public service, and without reference to their political or religious faith or party affiliations."

We recognize the commission form of municipal government as an effort to free city elections from the control of party politics, and from old-line political methods. Because of this, and because of the fact that an entire new class of voters are now in training, we deplore the fact that certain candidates at the recent primary felt it necessary to resort to these methods. That, whether in person or through their agents or managers, they made the attempt to influence votes by means of promises of jobs or special favors, by the use of money, liquor, cigars or other "treats" and by the employment of paid workers at the polls. Such methods are a form of bribery and are unquestionably contrary to the spirit of the commission form of government, and they have recently been specifically condemned by the Springfield Election Board as illegal.

In order that we may so far as possible frustrate their object, we believe it right to expose and condemn such and kindred forms of bribery wherever they come to our knowledge; for we feel that any official who secures election by a resort to such means may afterwards employ questionable practices in the administration of his office.

And we further declare our intention to vote and work only for those candidates who before and during the coming election refrain from the use of such methods.

LEW. H. PRATT NOMINATED BY SECOND WARD REPUBLICANS

Declares Choice for Member Board of Education at Largely Attended Primary.

The Second Ward Republican primary for the selection of a candidate for member of the board of education was held Thursday night in the circuit court room. It was one of the most largely attended board of education primaries held in a number of years, and 165 men's votes were cast, and 7 by women, making a total of 172. In addition to this number there were at least 50 or 75 residents from other wards so that the court room was crowded. L. H. Pratt was declared the choice of the primary, receiving 106 men's votes, to 59 cast for Richard L. Dye. When 7 women present were ready to vote there was an animated discussion as Mr. Dye maintained that under call no woman had a right to vote. He said that there was no precedent for it, and since he challenged the tellers to decide. H. K. Chenoweth, who was chairman of the meeting, ruled that the women had a right to vote and that if Mr. Dye wished to appeal from the decision that it was his privilege to do so. A somewhat animated debate followed between Mr. Dye and Joseph Gomes, the latter insisting that the right of the women was unquestioned. Over Mr. Dye's protest, therefore, the tellers accepted the ballots of the seven women voters and they were placed in a separate ballot box from the men's ballots. It so happened that the ballots cast by the women had no particular effect in the final result as there was so much difference in the totals between the two candidates. H. K. Chenoweth, as mentioned, was the chairman of the meeting, with Charles B. Graff and Percy Owens as secretaries.

The chair appointed as tellers Joseph DeGoveia and Benjamin Cohen, and as the voters present handed in their ballots they passed from the circuit court room to the county court room. Mr. Pratt was placed in nomination by Dr. A. B. Morey who said that he had known the candidate for 30 years and believed him a man safely to be trusted with the important school interests. Dr. Morey said that the attendance of so large a number at the primary was a good indication of the interest that the people are now taking in the schools. R. L. Dye was nominated by J. S. Green, who said that Mr. Dye was well known and needed no praise at his hands. The voting then began, and a few minutes later Josepha DeGoveia for the tellers announced to the chairman that Mr. Pratt received 106 men's and 7 women's votes and Mr. Pratt was therefore declared the nominee of the convention.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES WILL BE HELD AT STATE STREET CHURCH

Different Denominations Will Worship There From 12 Till 3—Public Schools Will Close at Noon.

There will be a union Good Friday service at State street church today from 12 o'clock till 3. The service is for all the people of the community who care to attend.
People may come and go at any time with absolute freedom. The ministerial union through their president, Rev. Howard D. French, addresses a letter to Superintendent of Schools C. E. Collins asking that the public schools might close Friday afternoon, in order that the children and instructors might attend. Supt. Collins called upon the members of the Board of Education who gave their consent to the wishes of the association. Rev. Mr.
French's letter was as follows:

My dear Mr. Collins:—The Ministerial Association of the City is going to hold a three hour service from 12 to 3 o'clock on Good Friday in State street church. I have had quite a few of the teachers and pupils of the schools express a desire to attend this significant service and am writing to ask if it is not possible to dismiss the schools on Good Friday afternoon so that they may have this opportunity.

In every other city in which I have lived, including the city of Chicago, a full day's recess is taken on this day. I realize that the schools here are pressed for time and that there are other obstacles in the way, but I shall hope that they will not be insuperable. Holidays are granted for athletic interests; it seems fair that the same privilege be recognized for the spiritual interests of the community. I am asking this on my own responsibility, but I know that it would be the wish and request of the association, were it brought to their notice.
It is simply to save time that I am putting it on this basis.

Let me express my appreciation of the hard work you are putting into our school problems and congratulate you on your success. If

Martin-Simpson Wedding in June.

Miss Martha H. Simpson and Mr. Davis W. Martin will be married in June of the present year, according to announcement made Thursday afternoon at a party for twelve friends of Miss Simpson at the home of Miss Faye L. Rodgers, 332 South Diamond street. The announcement was made just as the guests were ready to partake of a delicious three-course luncheon. The table decorations were in keeping with Easteride and yellow and white were prevailing colors in the different rooms. The place cards were of plain design with a chicken seal attached to each and miniature chicks of fluffy yellow, stationed here and there upon the table, added their suggestion of Easter. Hidden in the napkins the guests found dainty folders bearing the news. A photograph of the church at Cooksville in which Mr. Martin preaches, adorned the front cover and within were photos of the young people with the inscription "June, 1915." Bags of white silk filled with rice were used as favors for all except the bride-elect to whom were given small packets, neatly tied, with contents suggested by the adage, "something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue." The afternoon hours sped pleasantly by and the event by each of Miss Rodgers' friends will be long remembered.

Mr. Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Martin, 333 East Morton avenue. After completing his course in the Jacksonville high school he went to Eureka college and began his studies for the ministry. In June he will be graduated from Eureka with the bachelor of arts degree. For several years past he has worked in Christian churches and is now minister of the Christian church at Cooksville, previously holding the charge in Concord.

Miss Simpson received her education in the high school also. She was graduated with the class of 1910 and was later a student of music at the Woman's college. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Simpson, 867 North Church street and has always made Jacksonville her home. In the Sunday school, where first as a member of the Delta Alpha class and then as teacher of the King's Daughters she has ever been faithful, and in the city at large her friends are many and her claims to friendship manifold. Miss Simpson was for some time secretary at the high school and this year has been Mr. Collins' secretary in the city superintendent's office. She is a young woman of charm and talent, well worthy of all the good wishes she will receive.

The ladies not only made the required number but went beyond it. After the routine business of the lodge, the supper was enjoyed, one hundred and fifty being present. The men proved themselves worthy hosts. Music and a good time socially followed the supper. The following were in charge: Mayor George W. Davis, chief cook; Charles Seymour, chairman of banquet committee with A. C. Baldwin, R. E. Crabtree, A. H. Hoffman and J. A. McGlothlin, members. Waiters, L. P. Conlee, V. D. Wilson, C. D. Parent-Teacher's Meet.

The Parent-Teachers association of Maple Grove School held their regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon. After the regular business session a very excellent paper was read by Prof. L. Foster Hite. His subject was "Music as an aid to universal success." The paper was written in a very interesting manner and showed much careful thought and preparation. A very pleasant social hour and refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the program.

The Parent-Teachers association is still comparatively young but its accomplishments have been many. It has, with the aid of a very progressive school board, been the means of having electric lights installed in the school, and also a very fine piano, besides many other improvements.

The teachers, J. H. Reid and Miss Ethel Sooy, and other members of the association, are to be congratulated upon the hearty co-operation of all the patrons, and the school board.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Some Old Letters

By Ensley Moore.

Member of Illinois State Historical Society.

An intelligent critic, lately, in commenting on this series of papers, said: "There are many little points of valuable interest to people generally in the articles which the writer of them, being familiar with old times does not realize how they strike younger people, as being remarkable."

The people of today can hardly understand with the United States Postal Service so perfectly conducted, how unreliable it once was, and how much it cost to send letters—with no assurance of their reaching their destination. It cost twenty-five cents to send a letter to Philadelphia, in old times. So, between the cost and the uncertainty of the mails, people were glad to send letters and packages by friends and acquaintances, whenever opportunity offered.

It is also to be remembered that letters were fixed differently, in the long ago, from the present easy and tidy enveloping. First of all, a double or single sheet of writing paper used to be folded in a certain proper manner, and then sealed with a wafer. The superscription being placed on the smooth side opposite the sealed one. Then very common and cheap envelopes were introduced. The writing paper was generally coarse and heavy, and apt not to be well lined. This was improved upon until it was the fashion, in polite correspondence, to use blue or white paper, with an edging of gold. At first there were no stamps used, even after envelopes had come into use. Stamps did come, and they cost three cents for the weight now carried for two, in sealed matter.

A gentleman from here, being in Boston, along in the late "forties" at the time the First Presbyterian church was being arranged for or being built, applied to Mr. B. P. Whittemore, of that city for financial aid for the new church. Mr. Whittemore had been recommended as a man of benevolence. He requested our citizen to call the next day, when he (W.) would give his answer. The Jacksonville man was on hand at the appointed time, when Mr. Whittemore, much to his surprise, gave him a good contribution. Our man then said: "Mr. Whittemore, I should like it if you would permit me to ask you a question." Mr. W. told him to go ahead, when the Westerner said: "Yesterday, when I called, I noticed that, in sealing some letters, you only used half a wafer to each. I thought I would not get much out of you. But you have surprised me by your kind donation. Permit me to ask you why you divided the wafers you used in sealing your letters." Mr. Whittemore at once replied, substantially: "That is easily answered, by being careful in little things I am able to make the contribution which you have received."

The Civil War did a great thing for the nation, when it brought about the use of a uniform and good currency. Previously, there was an awful time of "wild cat" banks and their currency, which the holder took at great risk. Besides these notes being of doubtful value in the state of issue, in another state they might not be accepted at all. So a traveler scarcely knew where "he was at" financially. Before the days of "wild cat" currency, and after Jackson's removal of the national deposits from the old United States bank, there was almost no currency, and little gold or silver, in circulation in the West particularly. So almost everybody would talk about the lack of money. Whether richer or poorer it was hard for any one to get possession of the usual mediums of exchange. Barter took its place in many places.

A while back a young man found among the relics of his mother's mother's times a lot of letters written from Jacksonville and this vicinity by his grandmother's cousins. They were from various members of the McMackin family, which has been told about in this series of articles, and the following extracts from them give glimpses of Jacksonville and some neighboring places in the early days. It will be remembered that the McMackins came to Jacksonville, from Philadelphia, Pa., in 1836.

The initials of the writer are given at the head of each extract. These letters contain much history of Jacksonville, as to the conditions, people and events. Early business men, probably not recalled by any one now living here, are referred to. Mention is also made to the "burning question" of where the track of the Northern Cross rail road should be laid. Marshall P. Ayers appears in a new guise, and the importance attached to early day Commencements of Illinois college is shown.

J. P. S.:
Jville, Oct. 1836. I received your very kind letter by our friend Mr. Hawley, and should have answered before this time, but was waiting for a private conveyance to save postage. I just now heard of a lady going to the City, and have taken up my pen in great haste to address a few lines to you, informing you that we are all well, and doing well, and still expect to do well, I hope. x x x The buying of our furniture here cost us $200 in cash. Provisions are higher here at this time, than they ever were before. Flour is $8.50 per barrel. x x x S does not like the West as well as the East. I like it better x x x. The weather has been very cold and severe here at this time. It affects our folks very much, particularly N (a little boy). He says we will all freeze.

S. P. Mc:

Jville, May 1, 38. (Posted at Carlisle, Pa., May 24. Postage 12 cents.)

How are the times in Phila now? They have been dreadful here this winter. The tornado that is sweeping thro our land and the World is all the talk. (Referring to the hard times, charged to Prest. Jackson's removal of the deposits from the bank of the U. S.) I hope it has passed thro Phila by this time and things have resumed their former appearance. Everything is dull and a poor prospect ahead in this place. x x x This is the seventh letter I have written, and have two or three more yet. (To send by private parvate party.)

J. P. S.:

Jville, May 7, 1838. Having an opportunity of sending some letters East by a Mr. Hall, a young gentleman that has been attending the college in our town I thot I wd embrace it. x x x Our town is in an uproar at present about a railroad that is started at the river (Ill.) 20 miles from here, and to go to Springfield 35 miles from here. The majority of the people want it through State street and thro' the Public Square as the business is all done on the Square. But the commissioner (Murray McConnell) wishes to locate it on the outskirts of the town (meaning where the Wabash is now). If he accomplishes his ends the town is ruined for business. State street is the street we live on. (In the Chas. McDonald house.) Business of all kinds has been dull here for some months. x x x We are in hopes of the railroad doing some good for us yet.

This country affects father more than any of us, on account of its being so changeable and so cold. Rains frequently. It was so cold part of this winter I thot we wd freeze. We kept the stove and fireplace both going at once, in one room and cd not be warm then. The weather now is severe and cold. x x x (Speaking of a girl going to the Academy.) The old gentleman she goes to has twenty girls studying Latin. (Probably referring to "Father" John Adams, father of Mrs. Jos. H. Bancroft.)

S. P. Mc:

Rushville, Jan. 24, 1840. x x x As regards cold, we can boast of as cold weather as any other country. We do not have much of it. But when it comes it is as cold as Greenland. We have had a great deal of snow this winter.

M. A. Mc:

Jville, about 1844. I write to you by our new brother-in-law, Mr. (Robt.) Hockenbuhl, our sister Matilda's husband. They were married last October.

S. P. Mc:

Jville, April 15, 1841. Allow me to introduce Mrs. Milburn (mother of Rev. W. H. and Nicholas) a lady and citizen of our town. She is going to Phila on a visit, having formerly lived there. She is much of a lady, and one with whom I think you will be pleased. x x x We have an excellent Academy here, and our College is in a more flourishing condition that it has been in for a long time.

E. P. G.:

Jville, July 13, 1841. Please allow me to introduce to you Mr. King (probably S. Reynolds King) of this place, the bearer of this, a worthy man.

Yours of the 6th of April last, per Mr. (David) Robb, to myself and wife was duly received.

S. P. Mc:

Jville, Aug. 1841. As Stafford (Smith) is going to leave in the morning for Phila, I must endeavor to x x x write an answer to your kind letter, which I received by Mrs. Milburn.

S. P. Mc:

Jville, July 10, 1842. With much pleasure I embrace this opportunity of writing to you. The gentleman by whom I write is a Mr. Mann, of the firm of Zabriske, Mann & Co. They are merchant tailors. (Samuel Zabriske, was a captain in Hardin's reg't, and killed at Buena Vista, Mexico.)

J. P. S.:

Springfield, July 10, 1842. Margaret (Mrs. Joshua Moore) was home two weeks ago. Her health is very bad at present. She is going to keep house for the first time next week (at Perry). They have been boarding (at Naples) ever since they were married. x x x x Catharine (Mrs. E. T. Gandy) is very snugly fixed at present (in Springfield). She has got a very good husband. x x x He is carrying on the printing business at present, with his land agency. She was down in Jacksonville for two months. Her husband was traveling on business and for his health. When they came home I came with them to see the seat of government. Its a very business looking place. x x x The young man who will take this is Mr. Mann, formerly of New Jersey, but for the last few years a resident of the West. x x x He keeps a clothing store in our town with his brother-in-law, Colonel Zabriske, of New Brunswick, (New Jersey.) (Mr. Robt. Mann was a native of Phila; and, as will be noted, one of our early business men.)

E. T. G.:
Springfield, July 10, 1842.—We received your letter dated April 10, 1841, per Mr. (David) Robb, and I replied to it July 13, 1841; but as

EUROPEAN WAR NOTES

Petrograd, April 1—via London. (7:35 p. m.)—An official report issued today by the Russian headquarters in the Caucasus said: "In the region of Artvin, forty miles south of Batum, our troops have occupied Tsira. During the fighting at Artvin we captured two guns from the Turks. Elsewhere there is no change in the situation."

Paris, via London, April 1—(11:25 p. m.)—The following official statement was issued by the French war office tonight.

"There have been artillery duels at different points along the line in the Voivre district. To the west of the forest of Le Pretre we have occupied the village of Fey-En-Haye and have maintained our positions there despite several counterattacks. In Lorraine and in the Vosges there is nothing to report."

"To the south of Dixmude aviation Lieut. Garros brought down an aeroplane by machine gun fire. In the region of the Aisne another German aviator was brought to the ground by the French airman Navarre."

Vienna, via London, April 1—(10:40 p. m.)—The Austrian war office gave out the following statement tonight regarding the progress of the campaign.

"In the East Beskids the enemy during the night attempted several attacks in the Laborza Valley which were repulsed. Between Lukow Ridge and Usok Pass the fighting continues.

"Near Inowoloz, on the Pilica river, strong Russian forces this morning attacked our troops. After they had reached the entanglements the Russians were driven back with considerable losses. In the southern war theatre there has been no change.

"The open town of Orsova having been bombarded, we replied by bombarding Belgrade."

A SHEEP DOG

CHASED AND KILLED.

People in the vicinity of Lynneville have lately been having a time with a predatory dog among their sheep. First James Fitzpatrick's herd was entered one night and several killed and wounded and later the field of Roy Heaton was infested with the wretched brute.

Several men who had gone there to estimate the value of the sheep killed saw the dog and took after him about. They chased him four or five miles to the residence of a man named Suter near the Hart school house and there the dog entered and acted exactly as if at home. They called Mr. Suter out and told him what the dog had done but he promptly denied any ownership in the animal so the pursuers put an end to the dog's life.

REGULAR HOURS

I hit the hay at ten o'clock, and then I sleep around the block, till half past five; I hear the early robin's voice, and see the sunrise, and rejoice that I'm alive. From pain and katzenjammer free, my breakfast tastes as good to me as any meal; I throw in luscious buckwheat cakes, and scrambled eggs and sirloin steaks, and breaded veal. And as downtown I gayly wend, I often overtake a friend who's gone to waste; "I stayed up late last night," he sighs, and now I have two bloodshot eyes, and dark brown taste; I'd give a pleasure to die, for I'm so full of grief that I can hardly walk; I'll have to brace the drugstore clerks and throw some bromo to my works, or they will balk." But yesterday I saw a man to whom had been attached the can, by angry boss; he wassailed all the night away, and then showed up for work by day a total loss. Don't turn the nighttime into day, or loaf along the Great White Way—that habit grows; if to the front you hope to keep you must devote your nights to sleep—I tell you those.

RAIN INTERFERES WITH TRAINING OF PUGILISTS

HOT HUMID MORNING IS FOLLOWED BY THUNDERSTORMS.

Willard Does Virtually Nothing—Willard is Forced to Curtail His Activity—Ticket Sale for Fight is Very Large Among the Natives

Havana, April 1.—With only a few days left for training, rain today interfered seriously with the work of Jack Johnson and Jess Willard who shortly after noon on Monday next will step into the ring for their battle for the heavy weight championship of the world. Johnson did virtually nothing, Willard was forced to curtail his activity. A hot humid morning was followed by thunderstorms throughout the afternoon.

Willard Does Excellent Work.
Willard carried out his exhibition program before a crowd of enthusiasts who paid to see him. In the ring he boxed nine rounds with his sparring partners, Savage, Monahan and Hemphill. The floor of the ring was slippery and he took many chances; yet he did excellent work. He cut loose against Savage and lifted the 200 pounder clear off his feet with an easy right swing. He finished by letting Tex O'Rourke, the wrestler, throw a heavy medicine ball with all his strength twelve times against his stomach at the conclusion of which O'Rourke, who weighs 220 pounds, was tired out and Willard just laughed.

Winding up his other routine work of the morning Willard walked and ran five miles in a heavy sweater and came home dripping. People apparently never tire of watching this young man giant train. The attendance at his quarters during exhibition hours has been large and enough money has been taken in daily to pay all camp expenses.

Johnson Attends Races.
Johnson took a short run in the morning to a private bath in the harbor where he swam for the greater part of an hour. When the rain began to fall in the afternoon he decided to cut out his exhibition in the open stadium. Instead he went to the races where he was the object of much attention.
Chief Promoter Frazee said tonight that he would not let Johnson box an exhibition bout with Sam McVey on Saturday for fear of injury to the champion on the eve of the battle.

President Menocal Accepts Box.
General Mario G. Menocal, president of Cuba, has accepted a special ringside box of eighteen seats from which he will watch the fight with his friends and cabinet officers. His tickets have been elaborately engraved. Next to the president's box one has been set aside for the American minister and adjoining boxes will be occupied by the governor of Havana province, the mayor of Havana and the commanding general of the army. The Cuban congress has decided not to convene on Monday as that would interfere with the desires of members to witness the battle. They prefer this to listening to the president's speech which was set for Monday and, besides this, records with the view of the president himself.

Twenty Stores to Close.
Twenty of the leading stores—the largest in the city—will close at 10 o'clock Monday morning to enable the proprietors and employees to see the contest. The contractors started real work on the arena at the race track this morning. The ticket sale for the fight has been very large among the natives and the promoters refused to sell a block of five thousand three dollar seats today to a local ticket agency being convinced that they would have no difficulty in disposing of them themselves.

OPEN PORT FOR NAVAL STORES.
Pensacola, Fla., April 1.—Pensacola is today declared an open port for naval stores. Over sixty per cent of the rosin and turpentine of the world is produced along the Gulf coast. Heretofore Savannah, selling only 10 per cent of the total production, controlled the price. Beginning today Pensacola quotations will be made.

ROUT SCHOOL CLOSING WITH PICNIC DINNER.
Wednesday was the last day of the Rout school, a few miles south of the city and the teacher, Miss Elizabeth Connolly, and the pupils duly celebrated the event in an appropriate manner. They boiled eggs, had picnic dinner and a cool time generally and left with the best of feeling. The school has enjoyed a prosperous year and the pupils will go home and the larger ones will engage in the work on the farms.

The South Side Circle will meet this afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. William Newman. Mrs. Alex Platt will have the paper of the afternoon.

INTERNAL STRIFE HAS GIVEN PLACE TO HARMONY IN BASEBALL

Tener States Season of 1915 Promises to Be One of the Best Professional Baseball Has Experienced.

Chicago, April 1.—Internal strife among the big baseball leagues has given place to harmony according to John K. Tener, president of the National League.

"The season of 1915 promises to be one of the best professional baseball has experienced," he said. "The war in Europe will keep people with money to spend here at home and their attention naturally will turn to outdoor sports."

Governor Tener, Mrs. Tener and a party of friends, all of Philadelphia, stopped off in Chicago on their way home from the Panama-Pacific International exposition where they assisted at the dedication of the Pennsylvania building.
Before his departure tonight Governor Tener conferred with B. B. Johnson, president of the American League.

ONLY SIXTEEN, GIRL VERY SICK

Tells How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better."
—Miss AMELIA JAQUILLARD, 3961 Teboupioulas St., New Orleans, La.
St. Clair, Pa.—"My mother was alarmed because I was troubled with suppression and had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked like a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them."
—Miss ESTELLA MAGUIRE, 110 Thwing St., St. Clair, Pa.
There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.
If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

one package of my letters was lost. I am not certain that you received that.
S. P. Mc.:
Jacksonville, Jan. 15, 1844.—Am writing by Mr. Dayton (probably Frank and Oliver's father). When he returns he is going to New Jersey for his family, and will return immediately. * * * There is a Mr. Marshall Ayers attending medical lectures at the University, who will come home as soon as the term closes. I hope the boys will become acquainted with him, if they are not. He will bring any package you may wish to send or letters. * * * Business here is much as it has been. * * * The Female Academy is flourishing more than it has ever done before. It bids fair to be one of the best female institutions in the Union. * * * We are trying to get a new church (1st Presbyterian burned Dec. 1861.) The ladies have obligated themselves for $2,000, and we must make it by making pin cushions, and such things, and selling them. May I beg Mr. McGrath and you for any pieces of silks, satin vestings, cassimeres etc. They are of no value to him (a merchant tailor), only in his way. They will be very useful and acceptable to us "suckers" towards our new church. I hope you will excuse my begging, for by begging we must build our church, and indeed we need a new one very much. * * * Marshall Ayers will bring them with pleasure, if you tell him it is for the church.
Sabbath morning, 21st.—A week has passed since I commenced this. During which time a melancholy gloom has come over this community, occasioned by the death of Hon. Joseph Duncan. He was one of the earliest settlers of this country (Illinois), and one who held many important offices in the state, among which was Governor. He was universally beloved by all that knew him.
S. P. Mc.:
Jacksonville, April 25 (1843 probably). As Mr. Parveen and his family are going to leave Jacksonville in the morning, for your beloved city, I cannot let the opportunity pass without writing to you. * * * Times have been harder this winter than any one could imagine or think of, that is in regard to money. As for provisions, they have been very low, from flour down to potatoes. Flour has been $2.75 a barrel; pork from $1.50 to $2 a hundred weight; potatoes have been 12 1/2 cents per bushel. But notwithstanding these low prices everything has been hard to get, for every one is and has been selling for cash, and no money to be had. We have had two banks in our town, but both are stopped, so that we are left entirely destitute of money. * * * We have had a long and tedious winter, one snow storm after another all winter; and now mud, mud, mud.
M. M.:
Perry, Sept. 10, 1845.—I hope that you will not think that we have forgotten you all, and all the kindness that we received from you all during our late visit. * * * We arrived in the city of New York the day we left you; remained there two days. Spent the time very pleasantly. * * * Was much pleased with the city. Left for Buffalo on Wednesday evening (Erie canal presumably); remained there one day and a half. From there to Niagara where we spent about three days. We were charmed with the glories of the scene. * * * We visited Canada and the Burning Spring, which is much of a curiosity. Afterwards returned to Buffalo, on a splendid steamer, "Emperor." Crossed the lakes to Chicago, stopping at the most important towns on the route, such as Cleveland, Detroit, Milwaukee and Mackinac Island, where we saw a good many Indians. Our journey across the lakes was rendered rather unpleasant by the storms. I was quite sick. Mr. (Joshua) Moore was able to keep up most of the time, which was quite remarkable. We arrived in Chicago just fifteen days after we left you, feeling quite glad to be so near home, although quite out of funds. Fortunately we met a friend who furnished us with more, so that we got home without any trouble. The lake route is the most expensive I ever traveled. We were just 19 days on our way home (to Perry, Pike county). * * * Mrs. Thompson, or Miss Sarah (McMackin) that she was, was married on the first of July, and is keeping house in Meredosia. * * * Excuse me for not writing sooner. We have not been without company since we arrived at home, and at this time we have four visitors who expect to spend some time with us.
M. A. Mc.:
Jacksonville, Oct. 17 (1841?)—* * * Yet I must tell you we are not such Hottentots as you might think for. There are six churches in town, a college on the hill, and a female academy. And we have a music teacher connected with it, a Polander, who teaches painting. I am studying Latin, Philosophy and History. * * * And next term I will study French Algebra and music. * * * The boys here all go to college and when they get through they go to Cincinnati to study theology. Oh! we have a locomotive—locomotion as the "suckers" call it. We have four newspapers, Illinoisan, Regulator, Tatler, and Sentimentalist. * * * I have seen but 500 Indians since I came here. And they only passed through town about two years ago, on the way from the hunting grounds of their forefathers to go far away towards the going down of the sun. It was the last remnant of the Pottawattamies. They went to the other side of the Rocky Mountains. I saw but one handsome one among them, and that was the chief's son. * * * I will send you a piece of Illinois gold from the mines of the city of Exeter, which has a dozen houses in it. For you know, a log cabin and a pile of boards constitute a town.

E. N. Mc.:
Jacksonville, July 26, 1852. * * * We had a very pleasant time here commencement week, one of the gayest weeks that I ever spent in town. There were a great many persons here from a distance. We had a houseful of company, and no "girl". * * * Our town is in gloom just now. There is so much sickness here. So many of our friends have been sick with a contagious fever. The doctors do not seem to know what to do for it, and, for once, have come to a nice conclusion, that is to do nothing but let nature help them. We think those that are sick now may get well. Consumption has been here and laid his cold hand on the young, the loved and the beautiful. Annie Duncan, one of the most beautiful girls in town, has recently died of that disease; her death has cast a gloom over our community. She was engaged to be married to a talented young man from St. Louis. She has a young sister that is not expected to live. (Probably Mrs. Julia Duncan Kirby afterward).
E. N. Mc.:
Feb. 20, 1855 (Perry)—You know Lizzie Ballard has been making her home here for the last year? Well, she was married last week and she had a very large wedding. She married a young man from Pittsfield, and has done very well. They both looked very well. She looked beautiful in her bridal dress, as all brides do.

BILLINGS PAPER PRAISES WORK IN Y. M. C. A. OF NEWTON MADDOX

Association Reports Steady Increase and Former Jacksonville Boy Succeeds Admirably in Conduct of Montana Association.
Newton M. Maddox, formerly of Jacksonville, is making an excellent success as physical director at the Young Men's Christian Association at Billings, Mont., and a Billings newspaper of recent date gives some interesting statistics showing steady growth and progress by the association. The Y. M. C. A. is described as a place "where boys are made into men and men are made into boys" and the Billings "Y" is from all appearances very popular with a large percentage of the men and boys of that city. Says the account from Montana:
"Director Maddox's carefully kept enrollment books show that there has been a steady increase in the activities of the gymnasium since September. February was the largest month of the winter and possibly the largest in the history of the institution. Statistics are kept of the number of times the baths and gym are used by individuals. During the six months, 1,596 visits were paid the place by men for the purpose of taking exercise in the physical culture classes and 3,685 by boys for a like purpose. Basketball attracted 1,161 visits of men and boys; individual and undirected exercise, 659; volley ball, 723; handball, 360. The total attendance at the gym, including all these features, is figured at 13,172 for the six months.
Special Activities.
"Among the special activities for which the place has proved useful is the plan put into operation last fall when the boys of four city grade schools were invited to visit the plunge and shower bath once each week, half coming one afternoon and half the next. The privilege was extended free of charge and an average of 75 boys have availed themselves of the opportunity each week.
"A Sunday school tournament last winter gained many new friends for the gym as did also the two 'open house' athletic carnivals for the sugar factory employees.
"In a word the 'Y' has gone considerably more than half way this year toward meeting the men and boys of Billings who are not members. It has shown that it is here for the benefit and pleasure of the whole community, and not of a small part."

Baby of Future is Considered

Much thought has been given in late years to the subject of maternity. In the cities there are maternity hospitals equipped with modern methods. But most women prefer their own homes and in the towns and villages must prefer them. And since this is true we know from the great many splendid letters written on the subject that our "Mother's Friend" is a great help to expectant mothers. They write of the wonderful relief, how it seemed to allow the muscles to expand without undue strain and what a splendid influence it was on the nervous system. Such helps as "Mother's Friend" and the broader knowledge of them should have a helpful influence upon babies of the future. Science says that an infant derives its sense and builds its character from cutaneous impressions. And a tranquil mother certainly will transmit a more beautiful influence than if she is extremely nervous from undue pain. This is what a host of women believe who used "Mother's Friend" during their period of expectancy.
These points are more thoroughly explained in a little book mailed free. "Mother's Friend" is sold in all drug stores and highly recommended for its timely usefulness, its sweetness and the real help it affords. Ask for it at the store and write us for the book. Druggist Regulator Co., 511 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.
The effect of this splendid external application is an expression of the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

$3.00 PER YEAR

Less than One Cent a Day.

There are hundreds of people in this vicinity who have become accustomed to using a tin box in which to keep their valuables, who by using one of our SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES will find they are safer, strictly private and more satisfactory in every way. It requires two keys to unlock the box. The customer has one and the bank the other, which is the master key. If you should lose your key, and some one else should find it, it would do them no good, because it would require the master key, which we hold before the box could be opened.

BROWNING WILL TO BE GIVEN COURT TEST

ACTION BROUGHT BY MRS. T. B. OREAR TO HAVE DOCUMENT SET ASIDE.

Partition Suit Directed Against Farmers State Bank & Trust Co. As Executor—Claim Is Made That Lands Held by Mr. Browning Were Purchased With Funds Owned by Deceased and His Sister.

Bellatti, Bellatti & Moriarty, acting in behalf of Mrs. Sallie Browning Orear, Thursday filed a bill in the circuit court of Morgan county seeking to set aside the will of her brother, D. Rees Browning, on the ground that he was not in condition to make the will and that undue influence was exerted upon him.

A suit was also filed by Mrs. Orear against the Farmers' State Bank & Trust Co., et al. for partition. In this it is alleged that Mrs. Orear owns a half interest in the property of her brother. In the bill asking that the will be set aside it is shown that Mr. Browning, on the 29th day of October, 1913, executed a certain instrument purporting to be his last will and testament and that he died May 23, 1914, leaving Mrs. Orear and his wife, Mrs. Ella Headley Browning, as his only heirs at law. The document then goes on to say:

"The said D. Rees Browning in this instrument (professedly) devised and bequeathed his estate, real and personal, to his widow, to Mrs. Orear, to the Farmers' State Bank & Trust Co., as trustee, to the Church Extension of the Christian Church, to Nannie and Sallie Browning, to the Foreign Missionary Society of the Christian church, to the National Benevolent Association of the Christian church, to Central Christian church of Jacksonville, and to Eureka College.

"On the 9th day of July, 1914, this instrument, purporting to be the last will and testament of D. Rees Browning, was exhibited in the probate court of Morgan county and was probated, letters testamentary thereupon being granted to the Farmers' State Bank & Trust Co., the person named in the said instrument of writing and one of the defendants herein named, to act as executor thereof, and the Farmers' State Bank & Trust Co. then and there took upon itself the burden of sole executor of the said supposed will of the said D. Rees Browning.

"Your oratrix further represents that the said D. Rees Browning at the time of executing the said instrument in writing was not of sound mind and memory, but on the contrary thereof was in his dotage and his mind and memory were so impaired as to render him wholly incapable of making any just and proper distribution of his estate.

"Your oratrix further represents that the defendant, Ella Headley Browning, the widow of the deceased and the principal legatee thereunder, used and exercised many undue arts and fraudulent practices and resorted to falsehood and misrepresentation to induce the said D. Rees Browning to execute the said instrument in writing, and he, in executing the same, was in fact under improper and undue influences from the said arts and fraudulent practices of the said defendant, Ella Headley Browning. It is therefore asked that all of the defendants named in the bill be required to make full and direct answer, and that the estate of the said D. Rees Browning may be distributed among his heirs according to law."

Provisions of the Will.

A copy of the will is filed with the bill as an exhibit. By this will Mr. Browning bequeathed his home property on Mound avenue and all household goods and furniture to his wife; the rest of the property, consisting of about 640 acres of farm land lying between New Berlin and Island Grove, and also some other real estate, was bequeathed to the Farmers' State Bank & Trust Co., as trustee. It is provided that from the earnings of this property the trustee should pay to Mrs. Sallie Browning Orear during her natural life an annuity of $1200, and that the remainder of the earnings should be paid to his wife, Mrs. Ella Headley Browning, during her lifetime. It was provided that if Mrs. Browning should survive Mrs. Orear, that all of the net income should be paid to the wife during her lifetime. Further it is provided that upon the death of Mrs. Browning that she should have authority to bequeath one-half of the property as she desired. It was directed that the returns from the sale of the remaining half of the property should be invested by the trustee and from this sum an income of $1200 annually be paid to Mrs. Orear. Further it is directed that an additional sum of $10,000 should be put aside, the interest of which was to be for Mrs. Orear's benefit, and the trustee was entitled to draw upon this fund for her benefit in case of any special need, such as a long continued sickness. It was further directed that upon the death of Mrs. Orear subsequent to the death of the wife, that certain bequests were to be made from the residue of the estate: to the Extension Fund of the Christian church, $5,000, the said society to pay interest on this amount to Miss Nannie and Miss Sallie Browning, of Burlington, Iowa; to the Foreign Missionary Society of the Christian church, $3,000, with like provision for interest payment; to the National Benevolent Association of the Christian church, $5,000, for the use of the Old People's Home; to Central Christian church, $5,000; to Eureka college, $5,000; to the trustees of the Christian church $5,000, to be used in providing hospital care. As stated this will was drawn Dec. 30, 1913, witnessed by E. W. Brown and John L. Johnson.

Claims Co-Partnership.

In Mrs. Orear's partition suit directed against the Farmers' State Bank & Trust Co., et al., it is set forth that the late D. Rees Browning in the conduct of his business used the funds belonging to Mrs. Orear under a co-partnership agreement, and that a portion of the property he acquired and subsequently held in his own name was acquired as the result of such co-partnership, and that proper payments were not made to Mrs. Orear. The bill in the case says in part:

"Your oratrix, Sallie Browning Orear, represents that she is a sister of D. Rees Browning, and that years ago the oratrix and her brother entered into an equal co-partnership agreement for the conduct of their business and financial affairs whereby it was mutually agreed by and between them that they should each contribute into a common fund a sum of money then agreed upon and should thereafter both devote their time and business ability in the conduct and management of the partnership business affairs, and that the said capital so contributed and all profits and accumulations made by them should be owned by them as equal partners; that subsequent to this agreement they both made such contributions. It is further represented that the co-partners were fairly successful and from time to time accumulated considerable sums of money, and that the money accumulated by mutual agreement was invested and re-invested by the said D. Rees Browning for the mutual benefit of the co-partners. Your oratrix further represents that the money and property so accumulated belonged to D. Rees Browning and your oratrix in equal portions.

Land Purchases Cited.

"In pursuance of this agreement, the said D. Rees Browning and your oratrix purchased from one H. C. Hammond part of lot 23 in College Grove addition to Jacksonville, and this property was conveyed to D. Rees Browning for the use and benefit of the co-partners, and it was agreed that D. Rees Browning should hold the legal title to the premises. It was agreed between the co-partners that they would invest a certain sum of money in the purchase of farm lands, and that they thereupon purchased a tract of 75.06 acres in Sangamon county from E. W. Brown. Other purchases of lands were made including a tract of 320 acres, a tract of 160 acres, a tract of 78 acres, a tract of 3 acres, a tract of 1 1-2 acres. All of these lands were deeded by Edward Brown and Ruth S. Brown, his wife, July 8, 1905, to D. Rees Browning. Your oratrix represents that the purchase price of the said lands in Sangamon county was paid with the partnership funds belonging to the said co-partnership, and that the legal title thereto was placed in the said D. Rees Browning by mutual agreement of said partners. Your oratrix represents that one equal half of all the money paid out in the purchase of all lands above described was money belonging to your oratrix, and that although the legal title to said lands was by said deed vested in the said D. Rees Browning, yet upon the said purchase of said lands your oratrix became the beneficial and equitable owner of an equal undivided one-half part of all of the real estate above in this bill described. Your oratrix represents that Dr. Rees Browning and your oratrix never had an accounting and settlement of their said co-partnership business and affairs in his lifetime. Further it is represented that by his will D. Rees Browning appointed the Farmers' State Bank & Trust Co. executor thereof, and that as such executor the Farmers' State Bank and Trust Co. is now seized of all the real estate in this bill described; that your oratrix is seized of, and entitled to, a one-half part of this property in her own right, and that the Farmers' State Bank & Trust Co. is seized of, and entitled to, an undivided one-half thereof in trust for the uses and purposes in the said will and testament of the said D. Rees Browning.

Division Is Asked.

"Your oratrix further represents that she is desirous that a division and partition of the premises be made between your oratrix and the Farmers' State Bank & Trust Co., according to their respective rights and interest therein, and that in case the same cannot be divided without manifest injury or prejudice to the parties interested, that the same may be sold and the proceeds divided."

A summons in chancery is therefore asked, directed against the Farmers' State Bank & Trust Co., Mrs. Ella Headley Browning, and all the beneficiaries named in the will. A copy of the will is also attached to this bill as an exhibit.

ADELPHIAN LITERARY SOCIETY IN PROGRAM AT HIGH SCHOOL

Parliamentary Drill by Twelve Members is Among Evening's Features—Right and Wrong Way of Conducting a Meeting.

A parliamentary drill was among the interesting features of the Adelpian Literary society meeting Thursday evening at the high school. Various points of parliamentary procedure were illustrated and the right and wrong ways of conducting a public meeting were shown. This drill represents a new idea for high school literary programs and the audience was impressed with the practical manner in which it was carried on and the familiarity with rules of order shown by the members. Those who participated were Richard Hillerby, Fred Leach, Wells Walker, Wilbur Rogers, Charles Peak, John Furry, Dorothy Rogers, Catherine Carter, Capitola Peebe, Mildred Cusie, Ruby Cully and Pauline McMurphy.

The meeting was called to order at 7:45 o'clock by the president, Miss Helen Harney. The music and readings were well received and each number was well worth the appreciation bestowed. The program follows:

DR. C. M. STEWART'S WILL PLACED ON RECORD

Home Property and 160 Acres for Wife—Residue for Children.

The will of Dr. Clayton M. Stewart was filed for Probate Thursday with County Clerk Boruff. The original will was drawn Dec. 18, 1903, witnessed by C. H. Condit, Ormsby Dawson and J. C. Neat. A codicil was made Nov. 18, 1912, witnessed by Mrs. Emma C. DeKamp and C. H. Buscy. In the original will it is stated that because 160 acres of land in Scott county and the home place on West College avenue have been transferred to the wife of the testator, Mrs. Jennie M. Stewart, that no further provision for her is to be made. It is the wish of the testator that the remainder of his property be divided between his daughter, Mrs. Eliza Kellar, and his sons, Clayton and Frederick Stewart.

At the time the will was drawn the children were minors and it was provided that Dr. John H. Stewart, a brother of the testator, should become executor and should handle the property as trustee for the children. The codicil mentioned provides that Mrs. Stewart shall become executrix and that Mrs. Kellar shall share in the estate immediately after the death of her father and that the shares belonging to the sons, Clayton and Frederick, shall be held by R. C. Reynolds as trustee until they reach the age of 24 years.

Fred Burchett, yield, 27.7; profit, 29.6; exhibit, 14.8; story, 18. Total, 90.1 points.

The highest yield in the 1913 contest was 72 bushels.

Eighteen boys entered the contest in 1914.

The prizes awarded are made possible through the generosity of Andre & Andre, B. P. Andrews & Sons, Ayers National Bank, C. A. Boruff, Brady Bros. Hardware Co., E. W. Brown, Tom. H. Buckthorpe, Frank Byrns Hat Store, Chapin State Bank, Cherry's Livery, C. J. Deppe & Co., Geo. W. Davis, Geo. T. Douglas, Dunlap Russell & Co., Elliott State Bank, Farmers State Bank & Trust Co., F. G. Farrell & Co., Franklin Bank, M. R. Fitch, Gays Reliable Hardware, J. W. Hairgrove, Hall Brothers, Jos. R. Harker, Geo. H. Harney, Harmon's Dry Goods Store, Hillerby's Dry Goods Store, Hopper & Sons, Illinois College, Jacksonville Courier, Jacksonville Ry. & Light Co., Jacksonville Journal, Jenkinson-Bode-

Co., Johnson, Hackett & Guthrie, J. Bart Johnson, Chas. R. Knollenberg, La Crosse Lumber Co., Mathis, Kamm & Shibe, Murrayville Bank, Wm. Newman, Peacock Inn, Phelps & Osborne, J. G. Reynolds, W. B. Rogers, The Farm, F. J. Waddell & Co., Walton and Company, Worthington, Reeve & Green.

The Department of Rural Affairs feels that the farmer boys of Morgan county have not taken sufficient interest in this contest. It is true that the last two years have not been favorable for corn production and that many of the boys who entered the contest have been eliminated through no fault of their own. The cash prizes offered have been most generous and the Department of Rural Affairs feels that it cannot again ask for contributions unless it is assured in advance that a greater number of boys enter the contest for 1915.

If enough boys will signify their intention of entering the 1915 contest the Department will undertake the raising of the prizes. The boys who wish to enter should write at once to either of the members of the Department who are Frank J. Heintz, chairman; Dr. J. W. Hairgrove, Thomas Worthington, Dr. E. L. Crouch, J. W. Walton, A. M. Masters and Carl H. Weber, secretary.
